

Access World News Research Collection: 2021 Edition

The world's most comprehensive news resource

Overview

Access World News Research Collection: 2021 Edition sets a new standard for library research resources. With an unprecedented combination of global, regional and local news, including a unique merging of news formats (full-text articles, web-only content, PDF image editions), this resource supports a diverse range of research needs across an array of academic disciplines for students and faculty.

Unrivaled global coverage for superior search results

Includes current and archived news content from more than 12,700 sources spanning 200+ countries and territories across the following regions:

- Asia
- Africa
- Australia and New Zealand
- Central America
- Europe
- Middle East
- South America
- United Kingdom and Ireland
- United States and Canada

Multiple News Formats – One Interface

The world of news is continuously evolving. While in the past news was primarily delivered in print, today it is published in a wide variety of formats.

The 2021 Edition combines all formats – full-text articles, web-only content, PDF image editions – in a single interface providing researchers with seamless access to deep, comprehensive local coverage.

All NewsBank resources are remotely accessible 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, on any device.

For more information on NewsBank solutions, call 800.762.8182, email inforequest@newsbank.com or visit newsbank.com

